- A. Virginia Code (the Code) §2.2-230 states the agencies for which the Secretary of Veterans and Defense Affairs is responsible to the Governor. The Code §2.2-2000 et seq. establishes the Department of Veterans Services (DVS) and its divisions. The Code §2.2-2715 establishes VSF as an independent agency supporting the interests of veterans and their families and contributors through the Secretary of Veterans Services and the programs and services of DVS.
- B. Virginia Code §2.2-2103 states that, “Upon request, all agencies and political subdivisions of the Commonwealth shall assist any authority, board, commission, council or other collegial body established in this title in carrying out the respective duties for which each was created.”
- C. The VSF Board of Trustees Bylaws states that the P&PCom shall support the board’s responsibility for the conduct of business and operational direction, including planning, of the VSF organization. In support of procedures, the committee shall be responsible for the formulation of revisions to the:
 1. VSF charter;
 2. Board of Trustees Bylaws;
 3. Trustees’ general biennial schedule; and
 4. Goals and objectives of the VSF board and its committees, in coordination with those committees.
- D. The VSF Board of Trustees Bylaws also states that the P&PCom shall guide the operational direction of the VSF organization through development, documentation, and review of revisions to the VSF:
 1. Strategic Plan and subsidiary plans;
 2. VSF Policies, Joint VSF-DVS Policies, and other directives; and
 3. DVS-VSF Memorandum of Understanding.

F4.5 Policy

- C. VSF shall develop Foundation and Joint Agency policies to provide direction and guidance for carrying out its required functions.
- D. VSF shall, in coordination with other state agencies affected by Foundation policies, ensure cooperative and effective concurrence on the content of its plans, procedures, and policies.
- E. The VSF P&PCom shall judge the merits of each proposal to originate, modify, or terminate VSF plans, procedures, policies, and related documents.

F4.6 Methodology

- A. Document preparation shall be guided by the Virginia Code Commission’s rules for drafting Code of Virginia legislation including using short titles and very limited use of acronyms and common terminology as contained in Appendix A – Virginia Code Commission List of Technical Changes. Technical Changes are designed to correct:
 - 1. Typographic errors;
 - 2. Incorrect grammar and punctuation;
 - 3. Erroneous or incorrect terminology;
 - 4. Name changes;
 - 5. Old documents that require alignment with the terms in Appendix A; and
 - 6. Other dated material that does not affect the intent of the passage being changed.
- B. The use of common terms for the Foundation and the Department in all documents shall be as follows:
 - 1. The Department – use DVS
 - 2. Commissioner of the Department – DVS Commissioner
 - 3. Commissioner of Veteran Services – DVS Commissioner
 - 4. Refer to the sub-units within DVS (Care Centers, Cemeteries, VVFS, etc.) as Divisions
 - 5. Refer to individual DVS programs (Homeless, V3, Transition, etc.) within DVS Divisions as Programs
 - 6. The Foundation – use VSF or Foundation
 - 7. Foundation Chairman – VSF Chair
 - 8. VSF Development Committee – VSF DevCom
 - 9. VSF Finance Committee – VSF FiCom
 - 10. VSF Procedures and Policies Committee – VSF P&PCom
- C. Definitions must be common to all of the main participants. A glossary of definitions for VSF and DVS purposes is at Appendix B.
- D. Documents shall conform to the Virginia Code Commission standard practice of lining out text to be changed and inserting new text bold italics underscored/underlined in italics. For ease of identification, changes will be in bold. Rationale for the changes will be presented separately. The “red line” convention provides both colored underlining and highlighting, and rationale in one document. While convenient, multiple changes get lost and it can become confusing. Therefore, the “red line” method will not be used.
- E. Policies shall not be reduced to the extent that they are not understood by readers who are not know or are unaccustomed to provisions of the Code of Virginia and other important documents and may need greater explanation. Policies basically are manuals for both direction and education of the reader.

F4.7 Planning

Planning is the most basic of organization functions and involved selecting from alternative courses of action. Planning involves the setting of goals, objectives, and tasks and a means of reaching them. Planning does not take place in a vacuum and must consider the individuals involved (i.e., stakeholders), requirements of higher authority, and the nature of the internal and external environment in which organization operates.

A. Strategic Planning.

1. Strategic planning is used by an organization, the VSF in this case, to determine: (1) where it is going over the long range (usually five or more years), (2) how it's going to get there, and (3) how it will know if and when it achieved what it had set out to accomplish. Strategic planning focuses on the entire organization. It will result in decisions that ensure the foundation's ability to successfully respond to changes in the environment.
2. Strategic planning is not just plan development. It is a process designed to link planning and implementation and management on an ongoing basis. Strategic planning is part of a cycle that evolves into strategic management and continues into strategic planning revisions and actions by management to continue to manage strategically. Far more important than the strategic plan document is the strategic planning process itself. There is no perfect plan, but an effective organization cannot be without one.
3. A strategy is a pattern of purposes, policies, programs, actions, decisions, or resource allocations that define what an organization is, what it does and why it does it. Strategy is about means and the attainment of ends, not the specification of ends. But some specification of ends is necessary to give planning some direction. Ends specification usually is a statement of future conditions toward which planning effort is devoted.
4. In the strategic planning process, thinking, acting, and learning are most important. There are many approaches to developing a strategic plan. Most contain are ten steps (or occasions for dialog and discussion) that are usually taken, with reassessment and revision conducted throughout: It is an iterative process and its basic steps follow.
 - a. Initiate the process and identify stakeholders.
 - b. Identify foundation mandates.
 - c. Clarify foundation's vision, mission, values, and goals and objectives.
 - d. Asses the external environments to identify strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, and challenges/threats (SWOT).
 - e. Identify the strategic issue(s) facing the foundation.
 - f. Formulate strategies to manage the issues.
 - g. Review and adopt the strategic plan or plans.
 - h. Evaluate the original foundation mission, vision, etc.
 - i. Develop an effective implementation process.
 - j. Reassess strategies and the strategic planning process.
5. As a practical matter, strategic planning rarely starts with the first step. Instead, people sense that something is wrong with the current situation and they want to know what to do. This results in issue-driven planning (i.e., political decision making). VSF has found itself involved in issue-driven planning. One of the crucial features of issue-driven planning is that goals do not have to be agreed upon to proceed through the planning steps. All that is needed is an agreement on a strategy that will address the issue (e.g., outreach, fundraising) and further the interests of VSF and its primary key stakeholders (e.g., the Governor, Legislators, DVS Commissioner, Donors).

VSF Plans Procedures, Policies	VSF Policy for the Development and Maintenance of Plans, Procedures, and Policies	Effective: 12-12-2019

6. Strategic planning is an ongoing process that must be periodically updated to keep it current. The VSF strategic plan or its supporting plans are not a part of this policy. They shall be reviewed biennially by the P&PCom.

B. Other subsidiary plans meet VSF short term requirements by setting annual goals and objectives.
See Appendix C for annual goals and objectives tied to the VSF strategic plan.

F4.8 Procedures

- A. All trustees’ business procedures shall be conducted in accordance with the Code of Virginia, the VSF trustees’ bylaws, and the current edition of Robert’s Rules of Order Newly Revised, in order of descending precedence. The Code of Virginia provides the basic charter and procedures for the Foundation and its governing board. The board of trustee’s bylaws amplifies the authority contained in the charter and specifies the governing board’s procedures. Any proposed changes to the Code of Virginia or the trustees’ bylaws must be reviewed by the Office of the Attorney General.
- B. VSF and its board of trustees operate on the Commonwealth fiscal year; July 1 through June 30, as do trustees’ appointments. Critical to VSF procedures is scheduling to meet requirements of higher authority and accomplish functions for which VSF is responsible. Appendix D contains the VSF Biennial Fiscal Year Schedule. The board of trustees exercises its governance of the VSF organization through the administration and operational direction contained in the VSF policies.

F4.9 Policies

- A. The VSF Chair, VSF Committees, and the VSF Executive Director may make recommendations for VSF policies. The foregoing entities along with the DVS Commissioner, and DVS program directors, and DVS staff may make recommendations for joint VSF-DVS related policies.
- B. Foundation policies shall be differentiated from joint agency policies by the designation of F and a single digit number (e.g., F1. Interagency relations). Joint policies shall be identified by the letter J followed by a double digit number (e.g., J11, VSF-DVS Fundraising).

F4.10 Application

The provisions of this policy shall apply to new plans, procedures, policies, and their revisions. Electronic submissions shall be used along with electronic concurrence of the drafts and submitted to the VSF Trustees meeting at which the draft is to be considered.

- A. The drafter shall take the lead in collecting relevant information and consolidating various plans, procedures, policies, and attendant attachments. The drafter should have institutional knowledge and know the key individuals who shall be concerned with carrying out the directive created and should consult with the DVS director(s) whose program area is affected by the recommendation, as necessary.
- B. Draft documents shall be provided electronically to the P&PCom Chair and committee members and the VSF Executive Director, including informal members (e.g., Board Chair), for review and editing. As appropriate in dealing with the development, financial, and administrative aspects, the Chairs of DevCom or FinCom shall be included. Drafts of joint policies shall be submitted through the DVS leadership structure as required.

- C. Edited drafts would be returned to the drafter for corrections and re-review by the participants. This would continue until a consensus is reached, at which time the drafts would be distributed to the other board members for comment until a consensus is reached. If appropriate, simultaneous distribution may be used.
- D. Steps A, B, and C, in the preceding sub-sections to this section that pertain to prior development and staffing should be conducted before the P&PCom meeting at which the changes are to be considered.
- E. The finalized drafts, if required as stated in section F4.7.A, would be sent to the OAG Representative for review to ensure they are in conformity with the Code of Virginia and then distributed to board members for approval at least ten days before the next VSF Board meeting at which they are to be approved.

F4.11 Adoption and Amendment

This policy may be adopted and amended by a majority vote of the VSF Board of Trustees after consultation with the Secretary of Veterans and Defense Affairs and advice of the DVS Commissioner. Notice regarding such actions shall be given to all Trustees at least ten (10) days prior to the vote being taken. Biennial review of this policy is the responsibility of the VSF P&PCom.

On adoption, this policy supersedes VSF Policy 1 of May 6, 2009 revised on August 3, 2016.

F4.12 Policy Review Date

The policy review date is the date the policy was reviewed without revisions made. Reviewed: 3.8.2021

F4.13 Policy Effective Date

The effective date of the policy, or policy revision, shall be the date the VSF Trustees ratify the policy.
